

HalMitch's Syndicable Column
Ed. #3 - 12/31/11
2012 – A Return to Sanity or Doomsday?

Many people do at least two things at the beginning of each New Year. They make New Year's resolutions to improve their lives and they go on a new diet to lose weight. In most cases these are one and the same thing. However, there are also many people who are wondering if we, as a nation, will return to sanity or will we experience some kind of doomsday.

In case you're not sure of just what is meant by "doomsday" let's go to The Online Dictionary for its definition: [Middle English domesday, from Old English, genitive of dom or judgment; + dæg, or day] Def #1- the day on which the Last Judgment will occur, Def #2 - any day of reckoning. Either way it is a day where people come face to face with God or some "Higher Being" to answer for how they have lived their lives. Oh, oh!

To add fuel to this speculation, the Mayan calendar is set to expire on 12/21/12. Here is an excerpt from an article from USA Today called "Does Maya Calendar predict the 2012 Apocolypse?" Part of the 2012 mystique stems from the stars. On the winter solstice in 2012, the sun will be aligned with the center of the Milky Way for the first time in about 26,000 years. This means that "whatever energy typically streams to Earth from the center of the Milky Way will indeed be disrupted on 12/21/12 at 11:11 p.m. Universal Time," Joseph writes. (Journalist Lawrence Joseph, author of Apocalypse 2012)

What most Americans will be concerned with in 2012 is not so much the Winter Solstice date of December 21 but another date. November 11 is the day when we decide if we will continue the way of Obama's Social/Marxist Europe model or elect a Conservative, God fearing person who will focus America upon personal responsibility and The Constitution.

Fortunately in America we still have freedom of choice to decide who will be allowed to lead us. We must take this as a responsibility and not as a chore to go through every four years. We can and should decide that the Framers of the Constitution knew what they were doing when they wrote this amazing document and that it is not, as Obama says, "A fundamentally flawed document that does not mandate or allow for redistribution of wealth".

We need not worry about the Mayan calendar but we should instead be concerned about righting our own "ship of state" and returning to God and the Constitution. (FYI: You may want to check out Isaiah 13:10 for God's take on the subject) Then and only then, will we be able to "return to sanity" and avoid a "doomsday" of our own making. Happy New Year,

Hal Mitchell – Halmitch@cox.net

