

I Left my Heart in San Francisco

By Tony Bennett

Lyrics:

The loveliness of Paris
Seems somehow sadly gay
The glory that was Rome
Is of another day
I've been terribly alone
And forgotten in Manhattan
I'm going home to my city by the bay.

I left my heart in San Francisco
High on a hill, it calls to me.
To be where little cable cars
Climb halfway to the stars!
The morning fog may chill the air
I don't care!
My love waits there in San Francisco
Above the blue and windy sea
When I come home to you, San Francisco,
Your golden sun will shine for me!

*I Lost my Smarts in San Francisco
(An Attribute of Tony Bennett)*

We lost the lovely Towers
To the Terrorists that sadly day
Their glory was like Rome
But they're not here today
I've been forgotten in Manhattan
Since I said we were the Terrorists that day
So I'm going home to my city by the bay

I lost my smarts in San Francisco
Got high on a hill, it called to me
To be where little cable cars
Attract old wacko singing stars!
My morning fog may chill Stern's air
I don't care!
My fans wait there in San Francisco,
I'll go home to them in San Francisco
So the Terrorists' bombs won't fall on me!
