(Written by Hank Cochran)

Make the world go away
Get it off my shoulder
Say the things we used to say
And make the world, make it go away

Do you remember when you loved me
Before the world took you away
Well if you do, then forgive me
And make the world, make it go away

Make the world go away
Get it off my shoulder
Say the things we used to say
And make the world, make it go away

Now I'm sorry if I hurt you
Let me make it up to you day by day
And if you will, please forgive me
And make the world, make it go away

Make the world go away
Get it off my shoulder
Say the things we used to say
And make the world, make it go away

I made your free world go away
I got it off of your shoulders
Your can't say the things you used to say
I made your world go away

Do you remember when you loved me?
Before I took your world away?
But even if you don't forgive me
I'll rule your world anyway.

I made your free world go away
I got it off of your shoulders
I said the things you wanted me to say
I made your world go away.

Now, I'm sorry if I hurt you
And you can't make it in your pay
But even if you don't forgive me
I'll rule your world anyway!

I made your free speech go away
I took it off of your shoulders
You can't say the things you used to say
I made your world go away

Barack made your world go away
He took it off of your shoulders
You believed what used to say
And he made your free world go away!
